

Don't Stay At Home!

But be sure and attend Fair's Big Kum Down Sale. Only a few more days that you can take advantage of the low prices that are prevailing throughout the entire House. Remember Saturday brings the big event to a close. Let us make the closing days the best.

Bear in mind it pays to trade with a house that saves you money.

FAIR & CO.
THE FAIR DEALERS

ILLINOIS CENTRAL RAILROAD

MARDI GRAS NEW ORLEANS FEBRUARY 15 to 20

Tickets, reservations, train time, dates of sale and specific fares from your station, may be had of your local Ticket Agent.

G. H. BOWER, G. P. A. Memphis, Tenn.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL RAILROAD

Hartford Republican.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9.

M. H. & E. Railroad Time Table at Hartford, Ky.

L. & N. time card effective Monday Aug. 21st.

No. 112 North Bound due 7:19 a. m. daily except Sunday.

No. 114 North Bound due 3:40 p. m. daily except Sunday.

No. 115 South Bound due 8:45 a. m. daily except Sunday.

No. 113 South Bound due 1:46 p. m. daily except Sunday.

H. E. MISCHKE Agt.

U. S. Carson wants your Furs.

Fresh Staple Groceries at Moore's Meat Market.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew King, are visiting relatives in Hartford this week.

See our line of Silks at greatly reduced prices during the Come Down Sale.

CARSON & CO.

Call The Republican office, phone 123, when you have an item of news. This favor will be appreciated by the publishers and by the patrons of the paper.

For only $2.05 you can get The Hartford Republican, The Farmer & Stockman, The Peoples Monthly one year and a full size 16x20 engraving. Fill out the coupon which appears in this paper.

Come to the Come Down Sale.

CARSON & CO.

For quality Printing give The Republican a call.

If you miss the Come Down Sale it will be your loss.

CARSON & CO.

Mr. R. D. Walker left Monday morning for Louisville, where he has had a position offered him.

Remember the time and come to the Come Down Sale, February 2nd to 10th.

CARSON & CO.

Attorney G. B. Lileens, of Frankfort, attended circuit court in Hartford this week.

Look at our Ladies' Cloaks and Coat Suits while the Come Down Sale is on.

CARSON & CO.

Make a 25 cent purchase at the Ohio County Drug Company and take a guess for a $25.00 Victor Talking Machine.

Don't fail to try a sack of Irvington Flour. Satisfaction guaranteed. Sold exclusively by W. H. Moore & Son.

When you want job printing done, don't forget that The Republican does classy work, and the prices are reasonable.

Miss Mollie Martin, who formerly resided in this city, has accepted a position as attendant at the Fable Mind Institute at Frankfort.

Miss Fanny Whitlinghill, who formerly held a position in this city as stenographer, has accepted a position with Attorney Claude Mercer, of Harpersburg.

Little Georgia May Cooper, granddaughter of Esq. and Mrs. Thomas Sanders, who was severely burned several days ago, is getting along nicely, and on a good road to recovery.

Fresh Beefsteak, Beef Roast, Pork Steak, Chops, Home-made Sausage (pure Pork), Pure Home-made Lard (fine), and Cured Meats of all kinds at W. H. Moore & Son's Meat Market. Phone 47.

Mr. John T. Moore, cashier of the Bank of Hartford left Monday morning for Louisville, where he commenced business, after which he left for a weeks sojourn in Florida on a pleasure trip.

The third number of the Hartford College Lyceum Course will be given Saturday night at Dr. Bean's opera house. This occasion will be a rare treat for all lovers of expression and music.

It is highly cold to be talking about strawberries, none of which have reached the Hartford market, but we note that in some of the nearby cities they are on sale, at the "market" price of 60 cents a box. About 75 cents a quart.

Don't forget that W. H. Moore & Son will do all in their power to please you. If for any reason you are not satisfied with any purchase made of them, don't call others but tell us and we will treat you right.

The Fordville Seminary has considerably the largest enrollment of pupils at this spring term than it ever had. All five rooms are full and new pupils are entering daily. The people of Fordville are proud of their school.—Fordville Argonaut.

You should have a LEMCH AUTOMOBILE PHONE, a telephone for city and village use. The most wonderful invention of to-day in the telephone field. Gives the citizens of small towns practically the same service furnished in cities. It is a little wonder. Sold by A. E. Pace, Hartford, Ky.

Dr. and Mrs. C. DeWasse, of Fordville, have gone to New Orleans for a few weeks. Mrs. DeWasse has been in declining health for some time and it is thought the Southern climate will be of benefit to her. While in that city Dr. DeWasse will take a course of lectures in a medical College.

At the Hartford College Athletic Association rooms this evening at 7:30 a double-header basketball game will be held. The first game will be between the girls' teams, The Spiders and The Orioles. The second game will be between the Association team and a selected team, both of the latter teams being composed of young men.

If the ground hog came out last Friday, and it was the day set by tradition, he must have observed his shadow, for the opportunity was abundant. This, then, would mean that we are to have six weeks of bad weather to come. All of this is according to those who must need place Mr. Hogg in the forefront as the original weather forecaster.

Mr. John W. Taylor received a telegram Tuesday from Knoxville, Ind., notifying him of the death of his brother, Mr. R. S. Taylor, after an illness of pneumonia. The funeral took place yesterday at Birds-eye, Ind., the old home of the deceased. He leaves a family consisting of a wife and three children. Mr. Taylor of this place was unable to attend the ceremonies.

Fresh Field Seeds at U. W. Ford's.

County Judge R. R. Wedding is quite ill.

Miss Lorena Ford is sick with the la grippe.

Mr. John A. Johnson, route 7, is confined to his bed with la grippe.

Mrs. Lela Coppage, of Litchfield, is waiting her daughter, Mrs. Otto C. Martin.

Rev. C. D. Chick, of Beaver Dam, was a pleasant caller at this office Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. S. Overton, of Centertown, were pleasant callers at this office yesterday.

Today and Saturday will be the last days of the Come Down Sale. Call at Her's Grocery for Bargains.

Mr. James N. Chandler, traveling freight agent for the L. & N. R. R. Co., was in this city, yesterday.

Mr. Winslow Smith and daughter, Miss Olga, of Crumwell, were pleasant callers at this office Saturday.

Rev. Eli Wesley and brother, Mr. Charles Wesley, of Neenack, paid The Republican a pleasant call, Saturday.

When you want any kind of fresh or cured meats, hams, sausages or anything in the meat line, call on Her's Grocery and Meat Market.

Mr. A. R. Plummer, manager of the Centertown Mercantile Co., was in Louisville this week making spring purchases for his store.

Her's Grocery and Meat Market has ordered 40 new books for its circulation library. Only 2 more days to get the special price of 95c for membership.

Mr. Orville Ross, assistant cashier of the Farmers' Bank of Centertown, transacted business here Wednesday, and was a pleasant caller at The Republican office.

Among our callers Monday were Messrs. J. E. Brown, Owensboro; S. F. Riley, city; Ben Pihars, Rander; Vick Stewart, Hartford; W. L. White, Palo; and J. P. Clark, Fordville.

Mr. W. L. White, of Palo, brought to this office last Friday one of the most peculiar freak eggs ever seen. It was produced by one of the hens that belong to Mrs. White, and greatly resembles a miniature egg.

Mr. William Schaeffer, Oatton, R. 1, paid this office a pleasant call Tuesday, and renewed his subscription in connection with our clubbing offer with the Farmer and Stockman and four house plans free.

In the absence of Commonwealth Attorney Ben D. Ringo, who was called home Thursday morning on account of the death of his mother, Judge Birkhead appointed Attorney John B. Wilson as Com'n. Attorney pro tem.

THE CRAFT-LEICH ELECTRIC CO. makes the best telephones on the market to-day for Farmers lines, you should have one if you are, or expect to become a subscriber from the rural district. They are telephones that talk and sure ring. A. E. Pace, Hartford, Ky., Agent. 291.

Mr. Ben T. Taylor, who for several years has been in the barber business in this city with his brother, left early Wednesday morning for Birds-eye, Ind., where he will attend the funeral of his brother, after which he will go to Bloomfield, Ind., where he has accepted a position as barber.

Mrs. Ringo Dead.

Mr. Ben D. Ringo, Commonwealth Attorney in this district, received a message about midnight Wednesday telling him of the death of his mother, Mrs. Martha H. Ringo, at his home in Owensboro. He left on the early morning train for his home. Death was caused by paralysis of the heart, and while Mrs. Ringo was 83 years old she had been in splendid health, and was feeling well upon retiring Wednesday night. The deceased was a widow of Luther Ringo, who has been dead for many years. No arrangements had been made Thursday morning for the funeral. The Republican joins in expressing sympathy to the family in the loss of their loved one.

Notice of Dissolution.

Hartford, Ky., Jan. 15, 1912.
Notice of dissolution of the Ohio County Supply Company.

Notice is hereby given that the Ohio County Supply Company, incorporated, is closing up its business, and will be dissolved by unanimous consent of all the stockholders.

All persons having claims against the said Ohio County Supply Company, will present the same to its President, R. B. Martin, at his office in Hartford, on or before the first day of March, 1912, or else the claim will be forever barred.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to the said Ohio County Supply Company will please call and settle the same with R. B. Martin, at his office in Hartford, Ky.

OHIO COUNTY SUPPLY COMPANY.
By OTTO C. MARTIN, Secy.

Attest:
R. B. MARTIN, Pres.
S. A. BRATCHER, Treas.

If You Fail To

Take Advantage Of the Best Sale Of The Season

NOW AT Barnard & Co's

On you, and you alone, rests the burden and the blame.

MILL REMNANTS

At a great saving and any article in our store at a greatly reduced price.

ONLY 2 DAYS

DEPEND ON
BARNARD & CO.
HARTFORD, KY.

Circuit Court Notes.

Ohio Circuit Court convened here Monday with Hon. T. F. Birkhead presiding, Commonwealth Attorney B. D. Ringo and County Attorney C. E. Smith present to look after the Commonwealth cases.

The following named gentlemen were empaneled as grand jurors for the present term, viz: George Birks, F. B. Rinfrow, Walter Shields, Fred Miller, J. W. Embury, H. O. Bonnett, Joe Bennett, Robert Plummer, W. M. Addington, J. W. Muffet, W. H. Rhoads and John H. Leach. W. M. Addington was designated by the Court as foreman; Fred Miller was selected as sheriff and W. H. Rhoads as clerk of the grand jury.

The following were empaneled as petit jurors, viz: W. T. Withrow, J. W. Muffet, J. W. Rowe, W. H. Maddox, J. N. Cole, W. S. Allen, M. F. Allen, W. M. Flesher, T. C. Bean, James Cook, W. J. Madan, Pen Taylor, Almy Tichenor.

The Com'n. cases on the two days docket were disposed of as follows:

Com'n. vs. Kern Alvey—plea of guilty, law and facts to the court and fined $50 and costs.

Com'n. vs. Josie Ward—continued.

Com'n. vs. W. C. Truman, (two cases)—continued.

On motion of Commonwealth's and County Attorneys the following 14 cases were stricken from the docket: Com'n. vs. Grover Morris, Ernest James, et al, Carl (alias Crowder) Fox, Gilbert Wright, Jesse Cartier, Liche Ransom, (2 cases), C. H. White, (2 cases), Claude Taylor, (2 cases), P. A. Whit, Pearl Tichenor, V. L. Anderson.

The remainder of the jury trial listed and alias process awarded, viz: Com'n. vs. Paul Cooper, Liche Ransom, (3 cases), Hardin Balze, Fielden Balze, Red (Rusty) Wilson, Bob Nelson, (2 cases), L. E. Hobbs, Mollie Day, J. E. Smith, Mack Shopor, John Myers, Mike Haddock, Robert Bruner, the Hockley-Phelps-Bonham Co., E. L. Wells, Charlie Dennis, A. E. Smith, Hardin Balze, et al, (2 cases), Frank Allen, et al, (2 cases), Leo Ward, et al, Joy Wheeler, John Clever, Fielden Balze, et al, (3 cases), Chas. Balze, et al.

JURY TRIALS—ORDINARY DOCKET MONDAY—FIRST DAY.

William Murphy vs. M. H. & E. R. Co.

R. L. Taylor vs. Same.

Lena Cherry vs. V. L. Anderson.

TUESDAY—SECOND DAY.

Emmerson Rogers vs. W. C. Blankenship, et al.

Mary E. Pate vs. G. B. Lileens.

WEDNESDAY—THIRD DAY.

J. B. Howard vs. M. H. & E. R. Co., et al.

Wayne Lee vs. L. & N. R. Co.

Eva Hawes et al, vs. Advance Stove Works.

THURSDAY—FOURTH DAY.

L. T. Barnes vs. M. H. & E. R. Co.

FRIDAY—FIFTH DAY.

John Henry Tucker vs. Petition for Naturalization.

P. L. Alford vs. G. W. Embury, et al.

To remainder of the jury trial docket is not yet set.

The jury trials on ordinary docket were disposed of as follows:

William Murphy vs. M. H. & E. R. Co., verdict of jury for defendant.

Lena Cherry vs. V. L. Anderson, verdict of jury for defendant.

Mary E. Pate vs. G. B. Lileens—continued.

The Jury in the case of Emmerson Rogers vs. W. C. Blankenship failed to agree yesterday afternoon in Circuit Court and was dismissed.

Late in the afternoon the jury in the case of the Commonwealth vs. Oscar McKinney, the defendant was found guilty as charged.

Hartford College Notes.

Mr. A. C. Acton, city, as a pleasant visitor Tuesday.

Miss Ava Acton, Sulphur Springs, entered school Wednesday.

Miss Hattie Glenn was out of school Thursday and Friday on account of illness. Miss Myrtle Williams substituted in her absence.

Mr. Harry Blum, Loganport, and Miss Ida Barnard, Cannelton, entered the Teachers' Training Class this week.

Mr. Walker Myers, Oatton; Misses Effie and Edith Duke, Dukehurst, spent the week-end at home with their parents.

Prof. Haddock's Teachers' Class in History was devoting one period a week to the study of current events, which is a most interesting narration.

The second examination in all departments begins Wednesday.